BUSINESS SUMMARY

Home Depot is the world's largest home improvement specialty retailer, operating more than 2,300 warehouse-format stores offering more than 30,000 products in store and 1 million products online in the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Its stores offer numerous building materials, home improvement products, lawn and garden products, and decor products and provide various services, including home improvement installation services and tool and equipment rentals. The acquisition of distributor Interline Brands in 2015 allowed Home Depot to enter the maintenance, repair, and operations business, which has been expanded through the tie-up with HD Supply (2020). Moreover, the additions of the Company Store brought textile exposure to the lineup, while Redi Carpet added multifamily flooring.

Overall Rating
vs. Peers

63

Ratings scores are relative to industry groups. They compare key metrics to rank stocks vs. their competitors.
For example, higher growth than peers will score high even when the absolute growth is below the market average.

Quantitative Scores

Our scores analytics is to offer our concise analysis of a stock in powerful, but easy to digest format. Each of the composite score metrics are designed to use the best available accounting practices as well as source data from SEC filings. The scores are computed for a company vs. the market as a whole.

Fair Value

Fair value performs a forecasted discounted cash flow analysis of a company to determine the company's intrinsic value based on the expected future cash flows the company will produce. It basically determines what a company is worth based on how much cash flow it is expected to generate for you in the future, taking into account the time value of money and the predictability of those forecasted cash flows.

Peers

Peer ratings are computed from ranking companies in the same
